Hon. W. R. Dorman, of Houston, ex-members of the legislature from this county, was among the number from this county who went to Tallahassee to be present when the legislature was organized on Tuesday.

Have your eyes treated at J. D. Radford's by a specialist. We are prepared to correct difficult cases of Astigmatism, and all errors of the Refraction of the dioptric system. Give us a trial and we will guarantee you satisfaction. J. D. Radford.

To fully appreciate Live Oak, all one has to do is to go away for a time. When he returns Live Oak certainly does look good. The sun shines brighter and with a warmer welcome. The earth appears more resourceful and kind. The women are fairer and smile more sweetly. In fact Live Oak appears to combine all the things that make life enjoyable, with enough of the contrary to keep it from becoming monotonous. Great is Live Oak, and still greater are the big-hearted, generous, magnanimous and hospitable people that live within her borders.

Prof. J. A. Cox, of Kathleen, was a prominent visitor in the city Friday and Saturday, the guest of Dr. A. S. York. Prof. Cox is one of the representatives from Polk county and was on his way to Tallahassee to attend the legislature.

The following compliment to Deputy Sheriff Stokely, of this city, for his good work in aiding in the capture of the murderer of Sheriff Langston of Leon county is from a Tallahassee dispatch in the Pensacola Journal: "Sheriff Houstoun gives most of the credit for the capture of Morris to Deputy Sheriff N. P. Stokely of Live Oak, who took a leading part in the chase. Deputy Sheriff J. P. Hewitt, of Ocala, with his blood hounds, will remain in the city with Sheriff Houstoun until the trial is over and the case is disposed of definitely."
